

Mirtillo Rosso
Christmas is a state of mind

A week full of art, nature and sport in Valsesia!

Monday

With the cablecar! Even high mountain is within children's reach! At 3000 mt at Passo dei Salati, that links the Valsesia to the Aosta Valley. Up there we'll find the steinbocks that have learned living close to the humans. We leave the reception at 10.30 am (we take the Mirtillo shuttle bus or our own car) and we come back at 3.00pm. Costs: cable car adults 20€, under 12 years 12€ and free under 8 + lunch at the mountain restaurant.
Alternative: The Alagna waterfall with the strollers! Departure at 10.30 am.

Tuesday

The river initiation or the walk with the buggy.
Fun for children 5 years and older and a walk for the little ones on the stroller! We are leaving together, then the first ones are following the Rafting instructors and the little ones, with mum and dad, are taking a walk to the river to see their brothers and sisters! We are gathering all together at lunch time! We leave the reception at 10am (we take the Mirtillo shuttle bus or our own car) and we come back at 1pm. Costs: 40€ river activity.

Wednesday

Trip to the Rifugio Pastore. The most panoramic view on the Monte Rosa glacier can be reached with a nice 20 minutes walk suitable for all the family! There we are to Alpe Pile, a mountain pasture where there is also the High Valsesia Natural Park botanical garden. We leave the reception at 10.30am (we take the Mirtillo shuttle bus or our own car) and we come back at 3 pm. Costs: 3€ for the shuttle bus + lunch at the mountain restaurant.

Thursday

The most ancient hamlet of Alagna and the playground. Pedemonte is one of the most enchanting places of Valsesia. Culture, beauty, nature: here you find them all! We are visiting the Walser museum where, with a jump in to the past, you get to know the traditions of this old population of the higher lands. Then we move to the playground! We leave the reception at 10.30 am (we take the Mirtillo shuttle bus, our own car or the mountain bike) and we come back at 3pm. Costs: 3€ entrance to the Walser museum.

Friday

The Peccia lake. The gentle slope of the Val Vogna is the queen of the walks for families. In 45 minutes we reach the Peccia with its little lake and its 17th century wooden houses. We leave the reception at 10.00am and we come back at 3.30 pm. Costs: pic nic lunch adults 15€ and children 10€.
Alternative: Riva and the river with the strollers. Our little community, with the historical center, the river and the play area by the river. We leave the reception at 10.30 am and we come back at 12.00 Cost: free.

Saturday

Trip to Pianalunga. With the cable car we are going up to the mountain pasture of Pianalunga (2000 mt a.s.l.) where Luca, Vittorino and many other friends prepare a special pic nic for us at the mountain restaurant, together with games and some surprises! We leave the reception at 10.30 am (we take Mirtillo shuttle bus or our own car) and we come back at 1.00pm or at 3.00pm after lunch. Costs: cable car 8€ adults, 6€ under 12 and free under 8

Sunday

Trip to Mollia. At Anna and Marco's didactic farm Le Beline, with 40 Saanen goats, 3 cows and 3 horses, we always find good produce to taste and a new pasture to visit! We also visit the old hamlet of Piana Fontana. We leave the reception at 10.20 am everyone with his own car. You'll be free to come back whenever you wish. Costs: 5€ adults, 3€ children.

Mirtillo is always coming with you!