

A week full of art, nature and sport in Valsesia for those who don't go skiing! (As an example)

Monday

Gita a Gressoney! Have you ever taken a trip with a cable car? We go up to Passo Salati (3000m) where we can enjoy the best panoramic view of the valley and then we go down to Gressoney la Trinitè. We decide whether to go playing to the snowpark or to visit Gressoney St Jean! We leave the reception at 10.10 am (we catch the bus at 10.19 am in front of the hotel) and come back at 4pm by bus.

Cost: 29€ per adult for the cable car, children under 8 are free, 20€ children under 14 (id cards or passports are required).

Tuesday

The ancient Shennine trail

On the other side of the Sesia river, starts the old trail that links Riva Valdobbia to Alagna. It's a long walk and we cover just a part of it, looking for fresh snow where to play with sleighs!

We leave the reception at 10 am (we catch the bus at 10.10 am in front of the hotel) and come back at 12.30pm by bus. (11.59 am at the Chalet bus stop).

Cost: 3€ per person. Children under 3 are free.

Wednesday

In funivia a Pianalunga! We go up to Pianalunga (2000 m) with the cable car, to play in the snow with the sleighs.

We leave the reception at 10.10 am (we catch the bus at 10.19 am in front of the hotel). You are free to come back whenever you prefer (but remember to check the bus schedule!)

Cost: 8€ per adult for the cable car, children under 8 are free, 6€ children under 14 (id cards or passports are required).

Thursday

The ancientest hamlet and the playground. Pedemonte is one of the most enchanting places of the Valsesia. Culture, beauty, nature: you find them all! We visit the Walser museum, where with a jump to the past, you get to know the traditions of this old population of the high lands. Then we reach the playground!

We leave the reception at 10.10 am (we catch the bus at 10.19 am in front of the hotel). You are free to come back whenever you prefer (but remember to check the bus schedule!)

Cost: 3€ per person for the Walser museum.

Friday

The Val Vogna with the strollers. We discover the small hamlets of Riva Valdobbia: from Ca' di Janzo to Sant' Antonio, through Ca' Piacentino to stop in the end at the Rifugio S. Antonio for a traditional meal.

We leave the reception at 10 am and you are free to come back whenever you prefer.

Cost: lunch.

Saturday

Alagna Tour! On the stroller or by foot, our young explorers discover the little Walser community of Alagna. Each week a different discovery: the icy waterfall, the ice skating ring, the hamlets.

We leave the reception at 10.10 am (we catch the bus at 10.19 am in front of the hotel). You are free to come back whenever you prefer (but remember to check the bus schedule!)

Cost: free

Sunday

Trip to the farm in Mollia: the Le Beline didactic farm of Anna and Marco, with its 40 Saanen goats, 2 cows and 1 horse, the Piana Fontana hamlet and the Caffè della Mostra with its collection of unique objects and tools of the Walser handicraft where it's also possible to have lunch.

We leave the reception at 10.20 am everybody with their own car and you are free to come back whenever you prefer.

Cost: adults 5€, children 3€

Mirtillo is always coming with you!
